- Department of Economics in collaboration with the Placement Cell organised a career counselling session titled Take-off from UG Economics: Let's Hear Scottish X talk on 6th July, 2021. All speakers were alumni of the department. The first speaker, Dr. Sucheta Sardar, Assistant Professor, Department of Economics, School of Business Studies, Sharda University explained to us the nuances of a career in Academics. The next speaker Aritra Bhaumik, a proud Caledonian of the 2012 batch is currently working with Wells Fargo, Bangalore as a data analytical expert. He raised a very crucial point: the need for self- introspection, and to dream and imagine where we want to be and how. The third pathfinder for the day was Kirtiraj Lahiry, 2013 batch and presently working as Young Professional, Statistics Division, Office of the Coal Controller, Ministry of Coal, Government of India. He gave us detailed guidance towards skill development, professional exposure, and participation in internship programs. 92 students attended.
