journal of humanities and social sciences

This is a call for articles for the forthcoming number of the journal of humanities and social sciences (ISSN 0973-8737), an international refereed journal annually published by Scottish Church College, Kolkata.

The next issue will be published in August 2022 (tentatively).

The theme of the forthcoming number of the journal is “Humanities for the Environment”. The number invites articles that review ways in which the humanistic disciplines may help understand and engage with environmental problems. The number will define how, to what extent and by which means humanities theory and practice may help further pro-environmental behaviour. It will contribute to the fast growing literature on environmental humanities by specifically addressing issues of humanities interventions in global change research, policy, and action. It will focus on the contributions environmental humanities have made to address real-world problems and to determine their scope and how they can contribute to resolving current societal challenges. Contributions are invited from all disciplines of social sciences and humanities to raise issues emphasizing the impact, challenges and the opportunities related to the contribution of humanities for the environment.

It should be noted that we will publish only the first ten articles which receive positive referee report.

Contributions are invited from researchers working in different fields of humanities and social sciences. Contributions must reach the editorial board latest by 31st January, 2022. Notes and references should follow as end notes and numbered serially. We invite research papers which should be original, hitherto unpublished, well-documented, and consistent with the scope of the journal and should not normally exceed 5000 words including notes and references. Every article should contain an abstract (300 words) and key words (max.8).

The contributions should be emailed to: sccjhss@gmail.com
